

*Want to be on my massage appointment list?

I have a cancellation list where I “blast out” an email to a list of clients. If it works to take the appointment, they get back to me. There can be many takers so I look at the time stamped on the email – to be fair.

I would be happy to put you on this list, would you like that?

If it doesn't work just hit delete, no need to get back to me. But if you want the offered appointment, please get back to me as soon as possible.

Some months I get a flood of cancellations and other times no one cancels for weeks. Stay tuned.

If you get the appointment, I will confirm with you personally and then expect your confirmation ~ then we know we are connected and the appointment is yours.

Let me know if you want me to add you to this email blast.

With Gratitude,
Barbara
